

CHRIS NORTH

Mindreader & Mentalist

The success of performers like Derren Brown has brought mind reading and mentalism to the forefront of popular entertainment and CHRIS NORTH embraces that popularity with a fast moving and original cabaret show.

Think of a number, think of a book, think of an image or significant event in your life. Now think about how you would react if a complete stranger could predict your responses...

You may have watched this sort of stuff on TV and asked yourself - Can this be done in the real world?

The answer is emphatically - Yes it can! After the show, tell your friends what happened.

They probably won't believe you...

Amazing mind games from the baffling to the seemingly impossible with plenty of audience interaction guaranteed to spark discussion long after the performance...

CHRIS NORTH brings you extraordinary and thrilling effects that will have you laughing in one breath and totally amazed in the next.

It really will make you think...

All this and much more and YOU can be a part of it...

Sensational Mentalism LIVE!

Chris is the consummate professional with a career that has taken him all over the world. He has devised presentations for corporate clients and appeared on many of the world's leading cruise liners. There have been many TV appearances including being voted Britain's top speciality act.

"Just a note to congratulate you on your performance, your level of showmanship with baffling mind reading bemused and impressed the audience! For us this was an example of your professionalism and versatility as a first class entertainer..."

Philip Jeffries - Rotary International

"...it was the most professional show. You exceeded all our expectations".
